

Stobbs New Ideas Fund 2018

The Stobbs New Ideas Fund supports artists to develop new performance at Cambridge Junction. Stobbs is a Cambridge-based law firm specialising in intellectual property (IP). The support of Stobbs has enabled Cambridge Junction to create an initiative for new ideas and new work.

Deadline for submission of expressions of interest is Monday 3 December 2018.

About the Stobbs New Ideas Fund

The Stobbs New Ideas Fund offers two artists and/or companies an opportunity to develop and present work, above-and-beyond the opportunities currently offered by Cambridge Junction. The artistic focus for the Stobbs New Ideas Fund is to support contemporary theatre, performance and live art.

Each Stobbs New Ideas Fund commission is made up of:

- £5,000 commission fee (including all travel and accommodation).
- Two weeks of residency time (subject to availability) and space in J3 at Cambridge Junction including technical support.
- Advice and guidance from Cambridge Junction's Arts Producer and Artist Development Producer.
- Opportunity to present a new work in our arts programme or at WATCH OUT or in Views From The 'Bridge.

Financial assistance from the Stobbs New Ideas Fund can be included as cash match in other grant applications.

Proposals

Proposals must be for new ideas and new work. We will consider projects at the start of their development or projects which have already undergone development and now need assistance to make the work performance-ready.

Cambridge Junction is seeking proposals for work which:

- Fits within the scope of contemporary theatre, performance and live art.
- Sits comfortably in Cambridge Junction's arts programme and has relevance for and is accessible to Cambridge Junction's audiences.
- Can be presented in J2 at Cambridge Junction and similar black-box studio spaces or be publicly sited.
- Has the potential to tour.

The successful artist(s)/company will:

- Have a demonstrated commitment to the exploration of new ideas through performance, in content and/or artistic form.
- Have presented at least two professional works (outside of formal education).
- Be willing to undertake professional development opportunities (eg workshops) for Troop members or the Junction Young Company.
- Have a plan/strategy for financing and managing their project including through co-commissioning and/or funding.
- Be making work that is formally disruptive.

The Stobbs New Ideas Fund does not prioritise:

- Artists who are currently in formal education.
- Internationally located (non-UK resident) artist(s) or companies.

Please do not attach or send any scripts with proposals as these will not be read with the application.

Cambridge Junction is committed to representing the diverse range of voices which make up the UK today. We welcome proposal from artists who are diverse and different, including those from culturally diverse backgrounds (Black and Minority Ethnic) and those who identify as disabled.

To apply

We are seeking expressions of interest (EOI) for support through the Stobbs New Ideas Fund. To apply you must complete an EOI form. The form asks for information about:

- You and your work
- Your plans and ambitions to make a new work
- How Cambridge Junction can help you realise your ambition

Email your EOI form to daniel.kok@junction.co.uk by 12 noon on Deadline: Monday 3 December 2018. Selected applicants will be asked to complete a full proposal.

About Cambridge Junction

Cambridge Junction is the arts centre where art and tech meets life – a creative hub for people and ideas where audiences and artists explore, experience and are inspired by art, entertainment and learning.

We celebrate and nurture the intersection of the three strands of our programme:

- Arts development and presentation, with a focus on contemporary theatre and dance;
- Popular culture with a focus on live music, comedy and clubs; and
- Creative learning and skills development in the arts, using the organisation as a site for learning.

Located, twenty minutes' walk from the centre of the city, Cambridge Junction is the edgy urban arts centre where 100,000 people experience 350 events each year in our three spaces:

J1, a large versatile performance and social space with a standing capacity of 850;

J2, a 220 seat theatre; and

J3, a light-filled multipurpose space excellent for learning, rehearsal, residencies and talks.

During spring and autumn Cambridge Junction presents an arts programme which reflects the diverse experiences of the UK today and tells stories of the world relevant to the lives of our audiences. Our exploration of 'art and tech meets life' provides an excellent framework for content which reflects both political concerns and the everyday.

Our programme features a balance of physical theatre, theatre, dance, live art, circus, and spoken word. We present a rounded programme of work by local, regional, national and international artists and companies. We are committed to Interdisciplinarity and champion works which interrogate artistic form including event culture, utilise new technologies in performance and explore new forms of audience engagement.

Our presentation programme is underpinned by our commitment to the professional development of artists. Supporting artists through residencies is key to our talent development strategy and each year we offer a minimum of 26 residency weeks in our venue to artists to try out new ideas, develop new work and prepare for presentation. Each year we present WATCH OUT a festival of new work supported by Cambridge Junction through residency or commission.

Troop is our talent development programme which is building a contemporary performing arts community for Cambridge. Troop opportunities include workshops and masterclasses; showing work at Views From The 'Bridge our biannual platform for new work; residencies; and advice and guidance (including advice on writing grant applications) from our dedicated part-time member of staff.
